AA are only have 2 flights operating today, both are from Miami. They are 12:00 and 16:45 today and are already heavily booked. AA will make a decision on Weds. on resuming normal flights but current flight decisions are day-to-day. All other AA flights, including San Juan, are canceled. I hope to have United, Continental and Delta info by 11:00 but it doesn't look promising. Ian
